

Vicente Sederberg Strengthens New York Cannabis Expertise with Two Strategic Hires

America's top cannabis law firm greets experienced new partner and Chief Knowledge Officer to match client needs in a maturing market

Denver, CO (October 10, 2022) — Vicente Sederberg LLP (“Vicente Sederberg” or “the Company”), a leading cannabis law firm in the United States, is welcoming two new hires to deepen its expertise in the New York cannabis industry.

F.L. Gorman, a graduate of Syracuse University College of Law, and Elliot Choi, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School, will join the Vicente Sederberg team and contribute to the Company's growth during the next era of cannabis industry growth and development.

F.L. Gorman is slated to become Vicente Sederberg's newest Partner. With a background in real estate and debt finance, Gorman's 30 years of legal experience will prove invaluable as Vicente Sederberg grows its capacity regarding acquisitions and development, commercial leasing, zoning, and real estate-related litigation. Previously, Gorman was a partner and co-leader of the Real Estate Developers and Cannabis Industry Teams for Harris Beach PLLC.

Elliot Choi is poised to join Vicente Sederberg as the Company's Chief Knowledge Officer. Choi brings clients 17 years of legal experience, a wealth of cannabis industry knowledge and a knack for building systems. He previously held the role of U.S General Counsel at TerraAscend and has held a prominent role at an influential multi-state operator (MSO). Choi, a native New Yorker, will be the first to fill this newly created position at Vicente Sederberg.

“These hires demonstrate our Firm's commitment to being a robust part of the growing cannabis law community in New York and New Jersey. Clients in this region demand premier corporate, real estate and regulatory counsel, and Mr. Gorman and Mr. Choi are recognized service providers of the highest class,” said Brian Vicente, Founding Partner of Vicente Sederberg LLP.

“Almost all cannabis businesses require real estate expertise and Mr. Gorman has decades of experience—both in New York and nationally-- in shepherding and spearheading over $3 billion in complex real estate transactions,” Mr. Vicente added. “We are excited to bolster our real estate practice with a seasoned professional like Mr. Gorman.”

“We are thrilled to welcome Mr. Choi back to the Firm after his tenure in-house at TerraAscend. His experience working at this prominent public multi-state cannabis company will bolster our Firm's understanding of our cannabis clients' legal and regulatory needs.”

As one of the country's most influential cannabis law firms, Vicente Sederberg must remain at the forefront of the cannabis industry. By bringing on new team members well-versed in the New York State cannabis industry, Vicente Sederberg will be better able to serve this promising market. As the cannabis industry across the nation continues to grow, thrive, and become more refined, Vicente Sederberg is thrilled to continue catering to new types of cannabis business in a field that will see more significant transactions, legitimization of business practices and cross-industry development for decades to come.
