

Raekwon of Wu-Tang Clan, in Collaboration with Hashstoria, Unveils Exclusive "Compliments of the Chef" Cannabis Line at Cookies in Las Vegas

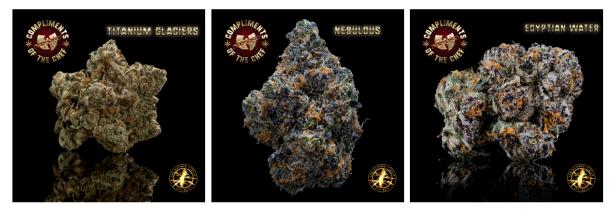

LAS VEGAS, NV - March 21, 2024 - Music and cultural icon Raekwon, a founding member of the legendary hip-hop group Wu-Tang Clan, is set to launch an exclusive cannabis line at Cookies' Flamingo location in Las Vegas in collaboration with Hashstoria. The special line, named "Compliments of the Chef," will consist of three meticulously curated strains of cannabis flower and will be available for purchase starting March 22nd at 8am at Cookies' Flamingo dispensary at 4240 W Flamingo Rd, Las Vegas, NV 89103.

Raekwon, known for his discerning taste and extensive experience with cannabis culture, has chosen to work with The Grower Circle, a distinguished group of professional growers in Nevada who pride themselves in growing verified, elite genetics, with gardens that are pesticide, PGR, and mold-free. All plants are hand-selected, hand-watered, and hand-trimmed. Raekwon worked closely with The Grower Circle to choose three strains to bear his name. These limited-edition products promise an unparalleled experience and will only be available while supplies last.

The launch date coincides with Wu-Tang Clan's eagerly anticipated residency performance in Las Vegas on March 22nd and March 23rd at the Virgin Hotels Las Vegas. Commemorating the 50th anniversary of hip-hop, this residency promises to be more than just a concert; it's a tribute to the prolific careers of hip-hop's most storied group.

"We are excited to bring the 'Compliments of the Chef' cannabis line to the people of Las Vegas, in partnership with Hashstoria," said Raekwon. "Cookies are trailblazers in the cannabis community and it's an honor to collaborate with them on this project. These strains represent the quality of the products that will be featured in Hashstoria."

Hashstoria, co-founded by Raekwon, has three adult-use dispensaries in Oregon and a new flagship dispensary slated to open in downtown Newark, New Jersey, in the spring of 2024. The Newark project, a collaboration with Charlamagne tha God and civil rights attorney Bakari Sellers, received a Class V cannabis retail license from the New Jersey Cannabis Regulatory Commission in October of 2023. The space is being designed by architect and designer Rachael Grochowski of RHG Architecture + Design.

Introducing the Strains:

- 1. Titanium Glaciers
 - Aroma: Warm peach cobbler and pastry crust.
 - Flavor: Savory baked fruit with a hint of fresh apple.
 - Experience: Heavy head high and warm body buzz that is potent.

2. Egyptian Water

- Aroma: Unique and complex aroma, blending rich earthy tones and kushy citrus with subtle hints of sweet mint.
- Flavor: Frosted cream flavor profile with earthy undertones and a gassy finish.
- Experience: Well-balanced. Expect an enhanced mood with a cerebral head high that levels out to relaxing body sedation.

3. Nebulous

- Aroma: Gassy tropical fruit punch and berries.
- Flavor: Sugary sweet pine with a fresh undertone of sour fruit candy
- Experience: Happy relaxed mind, complimented by a smooth body high that is still productive and creative.
